

OUR FIRM

Reinhart Partners, founded in 1991, is an asset management firm based in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. The firm specializes in managing high quality small and mid cap domestic equity strategies. Reinhart Partners manages assets for institutions and high-net worth individuals through separately managed accounts, model portfolios, and Reinhart Funds.

OUR PROCESS

The Genesis Private Market Value (PMV) investment strategy seeks long-term capital appreciation by investing in stocks of small and medium capitalization companies. The team utilizes PMV methodology for determining a company's true intrinsic value. It is calculated by observing actual merger and acquisition (M&A) transactions and applying corresponding and industry-specific valuation multiples to stocks we analyze.

- Our PMV investment philosophy seeks capital appreciation while minimizing downside risk.
- Extensive focus on durable competitive advantage including barriers to entry and customer captivity.
- M&A insight provides customized valuation metrics by industry to capture appropriate value drivers.
- Consistent and objective PMV discipline minimizes behavioral biases.

IMPORTANT DISCLOSURES

Return on Equity (ROE) is the amount of net income returned as a percentage of shareholders' equity. Return on equity measures a corporation's profitability by revealing how much profit a company generates with the money shareholders have invested.

Dividend yield is calculated by annualizing the last quarterly dividend paid and dividing it by the current share price.

Portfolio Turnover is a measure of how frequently assets within a fund are bought and sold by the managers.

Active Share measures the degree of difference between a fund portfolio and its benchmark index.

The 30-day SEC Yield represents net investment income earned by a fund over a 30-day period, expressed as an annual percentage rate based on the fund's share price at the end of the 30-day period. The SEC Yield should be regarded as an estimate of the fund's rate of investment income, and it may not equal the fund's actual income distribution rate, the income paid to a shareholder's account, or the income reported in the fund's financial statements.

The 30-Day SEC Yield Unsubsidized reflects the yield of a bond fund without any fee waivers or reimbursements, providing a clearer picture of the fund's potential income under normal expense conditions.

The primary benchmark for this composite is the Russell 2000 Value Index. The Russell 2000 Value Index measures the performance of those Russell 2000 companies with lower price/book ratios and lower forecasted growth values. The secondary benchmark for this composite is the Russell 2500 Value Index. The Russell 2500 Value Index measures the performance of those Russell 2500 companies with lower price/book ratios and lower forecasted growth values. The primary benchmark was changed on 12/31/23; in presentations shown prior to 12/31/23, the composite was compared to the Russell 2500 Index. The secondary benchmark was changed on 12/31/20; in presentations shown prior to 12/31/20, the composite was compared against the Russell 2000 Index. The benchmarks were changed to reflect the strategy of the composite more accurately. Index information is included merely to show the general trend in the market for the periods indicated and is not intended to imply that the portfolio was similar to an index either in composition or element of risk. An index is unmanaged, and an investment cannot be made directly into an index. Index returns do not reflect the deduction of advisory fees or any other fees or expenses. Index returns reflect the reinvestment of dividends, interest, and other earnings.

Mutual fund investing involves risk. Principal loss is possible. Investing in small and medium-sized companies involves greater risks than those associated with investing in large company stocks, such as business risk, significant stock price fluctuations, and illiquidity.
